RULE 1: TERMS OF COURT

A judicial year shall consist of one term of Court and shall be designated as the January Term of Court. Each Term of Court shall commence at the Clerk of Courts as provided by RC 2301.09. The Court shall be in continual session for the transaction of judicial business.

The Clerk of Courts shall, on the last day of each term of Court, journalize an entry continuing all cases, proceedings, prosecutions and other matters pending before the Court to the next succeeding term of Court.

The Court shall convene in open session at 9:00 a.m. and close at 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday of each week and with one-hour recess from 11:30 to 12:30 for lunch each day. These hours may be varied from time to time, to expedite the business of the Court. The Court will not be in session or in chambers during any legal holiday as established by the State of Ohio or United States Government.

RULE 2: PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

All pleadings, motions and other papers to be filed with the Court shall be legibly typed or printed on letter sized bond paper, bound at the top. Sufficient copies will be furnished by the filing party to enable the Clerk to serve each other party, according to law, when the Clerk is required to serve copies on other parties. On the face of the complaint, motion or other pleading will appear a general statement as to the type of action (examples: Complaint in Partition, Motion to Show Cause). Initial pleadings shall list the name and address of each party, case number blank to be filed in, style of the action, and header with the name of the Court. Subsequent and responsive pleadings may use an abbreviated caption, showing only the name of the first Plaintiff and first Defendant. Each pleading shall contain the name, address and telephone number of the attorney or party filing same.

Pleadings may be amended as provided in Civil Rule 15, but may not be amended by interlineation or obliteration without leave of Court. Original pleadings will not be withdrawn when amended pleadings are filed.

RULE 3: DISPOSITION OF MOTIONS

Unless oral argument is specifically requested in civil cases, motions will be submitted and determined without oral hearing and upon brief written statements of reasons in support thereof. Any party opposing the motion will serve and file his/her memorandum with a brief written statement of reasons in opposition to the motion within fourteen (14) days of service of the original motion.

If a request for oral argument is granted, all counsel and parties not in default will be notified by the Court of the assigned dates for said oral arguments.

RULE 4: INTERROGATORIES

Except when Interrogatories are attached to the complaint, for service with the complaint, Interrogatories, and responses to Interrogatories shall not be filed with the Clerk. They shall be sent to the opposing counsel, or party if no counsel, leaving sufficient space between each interrogatory to permit typing the answer immediately beneath the question. Opposing counsel, or the party if no counsel, shall type the answer or objection to each question on the ORIGINAL copy of the interrogatories, and return them to the proponent with 28 days, unless the Court shortens the time.

The opposing counsel answering said interrogatories shall file with the Clerk an Entry certifying that the same have been served upon all other counsel of record.

RULE 5: PRETRIAL CONFERENCE IN CIVIL CASES

“Pre-Trial” shall mean a court supervised conference designed to expedite the trial of a case and, if possible, to assist counsel in the amicable settlement of the controversy existing between litigants prior to trial.

At any time after a civil case is at issue, counsel for any party may request a pre-trial hearing by motion or the Court may, on its own motion, assign any cause at issue for pre-trial.

Following a pre-trial conference counsel may engage in further discovery proceedings should the same not be engaged in for the purpose of delaying trial of the issues. The Court reserves the right to set the case for trial without additional pre-trial and on its own motion and to consolidate or sever cases before the taking of testimony begins.

RULE 6: COUNSEL OF RECORD AND WITH DRAWAL OF COUNSEL

It is the responsibility of counsel to see that he/she is listed as an attorney of record to be entitled to receive notice of proceedings in any case. He/she may be so listed as “counsel of record” by some showing on the first pleading or by filing a written statement so signifying with the Clerk of this Court designating the case number and style of the case of which he/she is an attorney of sufficient notice to constitute an attorney "counsel of record."

If an attorney should desire to withdraw from a case, he/she may only do so by filing a written statement of such withdrawal with the Clerk of Courts and furnishing a copy of such withdrawal to all parties of record and to the Court with his certificate of service attached. Failure of an attorney to give notice of his/her withdrawal may subject him/her to payment of unnecessary jury and witnesses fees incurred. All provisions of Rule 1.16, Rules of Professional Conduct, are incorporated here by reference.

RULE 7: JOURNAL ENTRIES

Unless the Court otherwise directs, counsel for the party in whose favor an order, decree or judgment is rendered, shall within five (5) days thereafter prepare the proper Journal Entry, submit the same to opposing counsel who shall reject the same within five (5) days after receipt thereof and return to the submitting attorney or to the Court for the Judge's signature and journalization by the Clerk of Courts. Upon the failure of the adverse attorney to act upon the entry within five (5) days of receipt thereof, the preparer of such entry may submit it to the Clerk of Court for approval or rejection. If counsel are unable to agree upon an entry, their respective entries will be submitted to the judge who will direct which entry shall be journalized or in lieu thereof prepare his/her own journal entry for journalization without approval of counsel.

RULE 8: APPEALS TO THE COMMON PLEAS COURT

Except as may be otherwise provided by specific rules or statutes, all cases filed by way of appeal from administrative agencies, except Workers Compensation cases, shall be governed by the same procedure, to wit:

- (2) Within thirty (30) days after filing of Appellant's brief, Appellee shall file his/her brief in opposition, and assignments of error on his/her own behalf, if any.

RULE 10: TRIAL PRACTICE - ORAL ARGUMENTS

In civil and criminal cases where oral argument has not been waived, whether the case is tried to the Court with or without a jury, the time allowed counsel for oral argument will be limited to thirty (30) minutes on each side unless all parties to the suit agree to a longer or shorter period of time, such agreement subject to the Court's approval, or unless in the interest of justice the Court allows a longer period of time.

RULE 17: STANDARD PARENTING TIME ORDER

RULE 17.0 VINTON COUNTY STANDARD PARENTING TIME ORDER

17.1 LOCAL PARENTING TIME

The following schedule is applicable to those situations where the parties live within 150 miles of each other. The primary goal of any parenting time schedule is to maintain contact between the non-residential parent and the child(ren). The optimum parenting time schedule is where the parties agree to be as flexible as possible.

- 17.11 Regular Parenting Time. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time on alternate weekends from Friday, 6:00 p.m. until Sunday, 6:00 p.m.; however, if the preceding Friday or the following Monday of that weekend is a holiday during which the non-residential parent is scheduled to have parenting time, then parenting time will be expanded to include the holiday by beginning Thursday evening at 6:00 p.m. (if Friday is the holiday) or shall extend through Monday to 6:00 p.m. (if Monday is the holiday).

The non-residential parent will have mid-week parenting time of 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday evening every week. At the discretion of the non-residential parent, if he or she has the facilities and is able to take the child to school on Thursday morning, this parenting time period may extend all night Wednesday and the non-residential parent must provide transportation and deliver the child to school on Thursday morning or to the residence of the residential parent or to daycare by 9:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

- 17.12 Holidays. For the following listed holidays:

- | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------|
| (1) Martin Luther King Day | (2) President's Day |
| (3) Easter or Passover | (4) Memorial Day |

(5) July 4th

(6) Veteran's Day

(7) Labor Day

the parenting time schedule shall be:

For the years ending with an odd number, the non-residential parent shall have parenting time on the above odd numbered holidays, and the residential parent shall have parenting time on the above even numbered holidays. For the years ending with an even number, the non-residential parent shall have parenting time on the above even numbered holidays, and the residential parent shall have parenting time on the above odd numbered holidays. Parenting time shall be from 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday to 6:00 p.m. of the holiday except that with notice to the other parent, the July 4th return may be delayed until the following morning at 9:00 a.m.; however, where a non-residential parent's work schedule would not permit this parenting time, the holiday parenting time will be restricted to the hours the non-residential parent can actually spend with the child(ren) between 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. (except July 4th as noted above) unless notice is given that the child(ren) will be staying with grandparents during the holiday parenting time. Holidays shall take precedence over regular weekend parenting time.

17.13 Days of Special Meaning. Mother's Day shall always be with the children's mother and Father's Day shall always be with the children's father, regardless of the weekend parenting time schedule. If the parties cannot agree, the times shall be 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The child(ren)'s birthdays shall always be with the mother in years ending with even numbers and always with the father in years ending with odd numbers. The non-residential parent must provide one week's notice of the intent to have parenting time for the birthday. If the parties cannot agree, the parenting time shall be 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. if the birthday falls on a non-school day for the child and a non-working day for the designated parent. If it is the child's school day or the designated parent's work day, the parenting time shall be 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The child(ren)'s birthday parenting time schedules take precedent over all other designated parenting times. Brothers and sisters shall be permitted to attend the birthday event.

17.14 Extended Holiday Periods. There are certain holiday periods where school age children receive additional time off from school during spring breaks, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

For the years ending in even numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for the years ending in odd numbers, the residential parent shall have parenting time as follows:

- (1) Thanksgiving break: Wednesday before Thanksgiving from 6:00 p.m. to Friday after Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m.
- (2) Spring break: 6:00 p.m. the first day of the break through 6:00 p.m. of the last day before school vacation ends. If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which the residential parent resides shall determine the spring break dates.

17.15 Christmas Parenting Time. For the years ending in even numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for the years ending in odd numbers, the residential parent shall have Christmas parenting time from 6:00 p.m. on the last day before Christmas break until 2:00 p.m. on December 25.

For the years ending in odd numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for years ending in even numbers, the residential parent shall have Christmas parenting time from 2:00 p.m. on December 25 until 6:00 p.m. on January 1.

If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which the residential parent resides shall determine the Christmas break dates.

17.16 Summer Vacations. The non-residential parent shall have the opportunity to have the child(ren) for five weeks during the summer vacation schedule which may be exercised in two blocks of no more than three weeks separated by at least 14 days. During summer vacation there will be reciprocal weekends and mid-week parenting time for the residential parent. Provided also that the parties shall each have two weeks of uninterrupted parenting time with the children without parenting time with the other.

Both the residential parent and the non-residential parent shall provide the other party with notice of the weeks during which he or she intends to exercise summer vacation with the minor child(ren) on or before April 15 of that year. The non-residential parent's choice of vacation has priority over the residential parent's choice unless the residential parent's vacation is during a mandatory shutdown of that party's employer.

17.17 Transportation.

The non-residential parent is responsible for all transportation associated with midweek parenting time. The transportation associated with all other parenting times shall be equally divided between the parents as follows: The child(ren) shall be picked up at the home of the residential parent by the non-residential parent, or a designated driver, at the beginning of the non-residential parent's time. The residential parent, or a designated driver, shall pick up the child(ren) from the non-residential parent's home at the beginning of the residential parent's time.

17.2 LONG DISTANCE PARENTING TIME
(For Parties Residing Over 150 Miles Apart)

The intent of long distance parenting time (over 150 miles) is the same as when the parties are located reasonably close to one another and that is to maintain contact between the child(ren) and the non-residential parent. Both parties are encouraged to be as flexible as possible concerning parenting time.

17.21 Extended Holiday Periods. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time:

(A) Thanksgiving: From 6:00 p.m. Wednesday (before Thanksgiving Day) to Sunday, 6:00 p.m.

(B) Spring Break: From 6:00 p.m. of the first day of the break to 6:00 p.m. of the day before school starts.

(C) Christmas Break: From 3:00 p.m. Christmas Day (or Hanukkah) to 6:00 p.m. on the last day before school resumes after New Year's Day.

If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which the residential parent resides shall determine the Spring and Christmas break dates.

17.22 Summer Vacation. The non-residential parent shall have seven (7) weeks of summer parenting time with the child(ren) which shall be exercised at the discretion of the non-residential parent in two blocks of no more than four weeks separated by at least two weeks. During summer vacation there will be reciprocal weekends for the residential parent if travel time is less than six hours (round trip). In any event, with school age children, the child shall be returned to the residential parent at least one week prior to the start of school. The only exception would be where the residential parent's vacation is controlled by a mandatory shut-down of employer's operations. The non-residential parent shall provide the residential parent with notice of the weeks during which he or she intends to exercise summer vacation with the minor child(ren) on or before April 15 of that year.

17.23 Additional Vacation Times. The non-residential parent may exercise additional parenting time with the child(ren) as follows:

(A) Where the travel time does not involve more than six hours (round trip), the non-residential parent may exercise each year one period of parenting time for a three day weekend during a holiday otherwise designated for a non-residential parent under rule 17.12 beginning at 4:30 p.m. the day before the first day of the three day weekend to 8:30 p.m. of the last day of the three day weekend. The non-residential parent must provide a thirty day notice of intent to exercise this parenting time.

(B) If the non-residential parent elects to travel to the area where the child(ren) normally reside, the non-residential parent may exercise parenting time pursuant to Rule 17.13 except the following times would apply:

(1) Mother's/Father's Day: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.;

(2) Non-residential Parent's Birthday: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (non-school days); 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (school days); (if both parents have same birth date, they are to alternate).

(3) Children's Birthday: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (non-school days), 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (school days).

(C) If the non-residential parent intends to exercise this additional parenting time, fourteen (14) days notice must be given to the residential parent. Unless the order or decree specifies otherwise, the non-residential parent shall be responsible for the costs of transportation for any parenting time exercised under this Section 17.23.

17.24 Transportation. Where the parties reside more than 150 miles apart, the parties will divide the hours of transportation and the expense as evenly as possible.

17.3 PARENTING TIME WITH INFANTS (AGE BIRTH TO 18 MONTHS)

The court recognizes that parenting time with infants raises special concerns for the parties because of the care, skill and needs of the baby or infant. During this most formative of times it is important that both parents are able to observe, share and participate in activities with the infant. The court encourages the non-residential parent to have frequent short visits with the infant at the beginning, with more and longer visits as the infant grows and the comfort level for the infant and parent increases.

17.31 Birth to twelve months. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. on Sundays and 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, every week.

17.32 Twelve months to 18 months. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 10:00 a.m. on Saturdays to 6:00 p.m. on Sundays, and from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, every week.

17.33 After 18 months. Regular parenting time schedule applies.

17.34 Special Situations. If the parties have an infant who is younger than 18 months of age and either parent does not believe this infant schedule is appropriate in their circumstances, then, upon the request of either parent, the court will schedule an oral hearing for the purpose of establishing a reasonable parenting time schedule. Said hearing will be scheduled for 30 minutes allowing each parent 15 minutes to present his/her case.

17.4 GENERAL RULES (APPLICABLE TO ALL PARENTING TIME ORDERS)

(A) Notice. Parents have a right to visit their child(ren) and the child(ren) has the right to prepare for and expect a visit. Notice of the intent not to visit shall be given 24 hours in advance. The child(ren) must only be available for 30 minutes past the scheduled pick-up time unless prior arrangements have been made by the parties.

(B) Special situations. When the residential parent will be gone overnight regardless of the age of the child(ren), the non-residential parent shall be afforded the opportunity to exercise overnight parenting time.

(C) Telephone. Each parent shall have telephone contact of reasonable frequency and duration with the child(ren) while in the physical custody of the other parent. Each parent shall provide the other with appropriate telephone numbers.

(D) Address. Each parent shall provide the other parent and the Court with any change in residential address promptly and in accordance with the Notice of Relocation required by the Ohio Revised Code.

RULE 18: ASSIGNMENT AND COMPENSATION OF COUNSEL IN CRIMINAL CASES

Such assigned counsel shall receive compensation for professional services and shall be reimbursed for expenses in accordance with R.C. 2941.51. Such assigned counsel will submit an itemized statement of the services rendered and the time spent in connection with such services, whether spent in preparation and trial or other disposition of the case and any out of pocket expenses incurred therein. 4. Maximum fees granted shall not exceed the schedule set by the Vinton County Commissioners.

5. Failure to timely file the Motion for Assigned Counsel Fees shall result in a reduction in the amount which would have been reimbursed to the county by the state of Ohio Public Defender Commission, and the approved fee will be reduced accordingly.

RULE 19: CASE MANAGEMENT

Pursuant to CP Rule 9 (A), the following case management plan is adopted. Early Case Management Conference: This conference, known as a "Status Conference", shall be scheduled by the Court, for all civil and domestic relations cases which are at issue, in the second month following joinder of the issues. At the status conference, the Court may, if available, refer the matter to mediation in accordance with Rule 22.
